Please try to bring exact change. Thank you.

The goal of the 2022 Good Shepherd Campaign, Awaken, is to raise $350,000 to support an awakening in the faith in the lives of all the faithful of the Archdiocese of Saint Boniface, and to support the ongoing formation of priests and seminarians who are on fire for the Word of God and the Eucharist.

Please watch the campaign video that is available on the archdiocesan website and Facebook page and consider making a donation to help ensure the future of pastoral work in our archdiocese.

Donations can be made online at donate.archsaintboniface.ca, or you can place your completed donation card in the collection basket, mail the donation card and cheque to the Archdiocese or call the Archdiocese and enquire about giving monthly through a PAD (Pre-Authorized Debit). Good Shepherd Campaign brochures are available on the shelf by the parish office at the back of the church or by contacting the parish office.

Please continue to pray for new vocations, for our seminarians, and clergy.

ETERNAL REST

On November 2nd, last week, we celebrated the important day of the year on which we commemorate all the faithful departed, also known as All Souls. On that same day, FORMED also released a new video series called Eternal Rest, which, as you can imagine, is about death. In between the two Masses that our parish had on All Souls, I wanted to check the four episodes out, and ended up watching the whole series. I found it to be quite beautiful and wanted to spend my weekly message just giving a brief glimpse of the episodes with the hope that you might check them (or some) out for yourself. The personal stories and testimonies were probably my favourite part; these added that relatable human element.

Each of Eternal Rest's four 30-minute episodes addresses large-scale questions about death from a Catholic perspective. The series takes viewers on a journey from death's origin to Christ's final victory at the Cross and Resurrection. (If you haven't signed up for FORMED yet, do so here: formed.org/signup) The following is a brief description of what each episode looks at.

The Story of Death

Where did death come from? What does death mean for the human person? Is it simply just part of life, or is it something else? In this first session, we discuss the story of death and God's response to it: defeating death by dying and rising from the dead.

The Afterlife

What happens after the moment of our death? Once the soul has been separated from the body, then what? What is heaven, hell, and purgatory? What is the difference between the particular judgement and the general judgement? This session looks at the truth about what awaits the human person on the other side of death.

The Hour of Our Death

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Church. But whom exactly is this sacrament for? What are its effects? In this session, we discover the role of this sacramental anointing in the spiritual struggle during serious illness, in the final stages of our temporal life, and at the hour of our death.

The Faithful Departed

What is left for the living to do after someone dies? In this session, we talk about the final ways in which those still living on earth care for the body and soul of the dead. We discuss the work that remains for the living to do as we grieve for the deceased and as we turn to the work of preparing for our own death, and the hope in which we live and die as Christians.

The month of November is an especially privileged time where we can ponder our own death, as well as pray for those who have died. Why contemplate our own death in relation to recalling that others have died? The art of dying well is also the art of living well. By understanding who we are and what we are made for, we can order our lives and values according to God's design for our true fulfilment. Knowing we will die someday allows us to live as prudent stewards of the time we're given, and it grants us the ability to joyfully anticipate eternal life.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

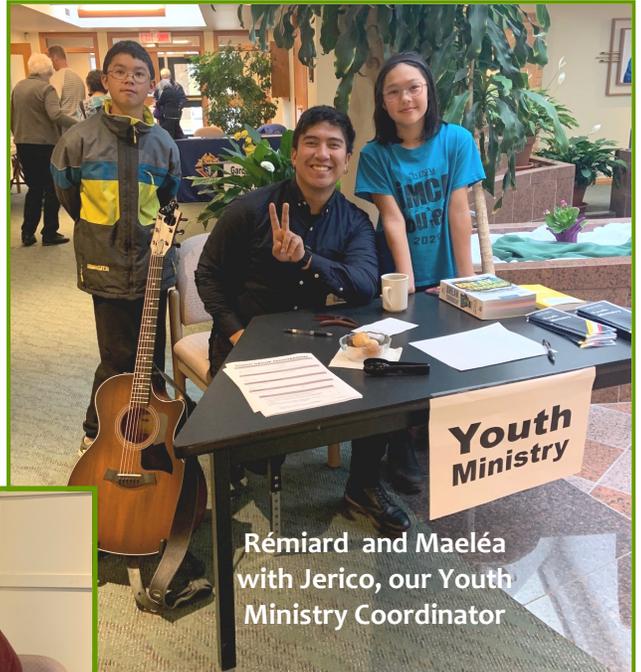

I am, in our Lord, yours.

Fr. Brian Trueman

Year of Service - Liturgical Workshops for “NEW & OLD”

Just a reminder of the workshops for some of our liturgical ministries that are taking place over the next couple weeks.

These workshops are for both experienced and new ministers. It's an opportunity to review and renew not only what we do, but why we do it. And now is the time to encourage new people to discover their gifts and talents.

These are the dates for the workshops. There are two options for dates (weeknight or weekend day) for each ministry workshop to suit different needs and schedules.

No need to Sign-up for the workshops!

We're continuing with The SEARCH video series.

Today we seem to think we've moved beyond the idea of God, but this secular view of life is a very new and unusual idea to humanity. All through human history man has looked to something outside himself for the answers to life. Why have we given up on God? Do we think science has disproven Him? Do we think society is better off without him? We talk with astrophysicists, chemists, Harvard professors, and more to make the case that it's not only reasonable to believe in God, it's essential if you want to have a truly amazing life. Our souls seek their creator, and we'll never be truly happy unless we seek Him out. As St. Augustine famously said, "You have made us for Yourself O Lord, and our hearts are restless, until they rest in Thee."

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

November 13, 2022 - 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us." - 2 Thes 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

MOVING FORWARD with Grief

Feelings of anxiety, panic, and fear may be part of your grief experience. While unpleasant, these feels are often normal components of the grief experience. The good news is that expressing them can help make them feel more tolerable, and knowing that they are temporary may help you during this trying time.

Excerpt from Dr. Alan Wolfelt, Understanding Your Grief

Thank you Generous St. Timothy Parishioners!

Last week, SSVP ran out of cash forcing us to suspend our regular grocery deliveries just as we were preparing our 2022 Christmas hamper drive. This was very unfortunate because food price inflation is hitting the Poor very hard right now and our services are needed more than ever.

However, news of our plight spread very quickly and because of you, our fantastic donors, we are now able to resume our regular food hamper deliveries. We are humbled and overwhelmed and so extremely grateful to the parishioners of St. Timothy for your amazing generosity!

Thank you for your love for the Poor of Winnipeg and God bless you all.

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of November 13, 2022

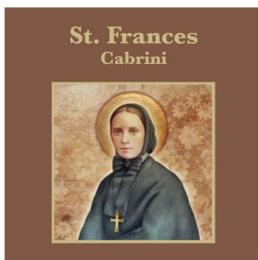

Saints Peter and Paul

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp to expand your knowledge of sacred art. In this episode on FORMED, they discuss an icon depicting Sts. Peter and Paul.

St. Giuseppe Moscati

Giuseppe Moscati, "the holy physician of Naples," was a medical doctor and layman in the early twentieth century who came from an aristocratic family and devoted his medical career to serving the poor. Watch this beautiful film to be inspired by the example of this holy man.

St. Frances Cabrini

No one would have assumed that a sickly girl from Italy would be accepted into a convent nor travel far from home. Yet, St. Frances went on to prove both assumptions incorrect, becoming a nun and missionary who would establish schools, orphanages and hospitals all across America.
